Guidelines for contributors

Although many articles are commissioned, unsolicited articles are welcomed. Authors may expect to hear a decision within two months of acknowledgement. International Issues & Slovak Foreign Policy is a refereed journal. Articles should be original and deliver the main points. The length of contributions should not exceed 6,000 words. Quotation should be clearly gathered in a manageable proportion as footnotes. Footnotes should be presented as follows:

Books

Articles in journals

Articles in Volumes

Articles in newspapers

"David Cameron deploys 10,000 more police to stop London riots," The Washington Post, August 9, 2011.

Articles available online:

Documents

"Joint communication to the European Council, the European Parliament, the Council, the European Economic and Social Committee and the Committee of the Regions. A partnership for democracy and shared prosperity with the Southern Mediterranean;" COM(2011) 200 final, European Commission/High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy, March 8, 2011.

Editor reserves the right to structure the text by adding sub-headings, unless this is already done by the author. Articles should be written in English. Authors will be sent the edited and proofread articles for checking on the understanding. Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign copyright to the publisher.

We also welcome reviews of new books (1,500 words).
