

Roundtable with the UK on future relations in foreign and defence policy

Date	15 March 2018
Place	Hotel Falkensteiner, Pilárikova 5, Bratislava
Organizer	Slovak Foreign Policy Association (SFPA)
Aims	The main aim of the roundtable is to explore post-Brexit relations between the EU and the UK in foreign and defence policy as laid out in the UK Government Future Partnership Paper and reflect upon specific Slovak-British interests and implications for bilateral relations in these areas.
Languages	English without simultaneous interpretation

ROUNDTABLE PROGRAM

9:30	Opening Andrew Garth , UK Ambassador in Slovakia Vladimír Bilčík , Head of EU Program, Research Center of the SFPA
9:45	Foreign policy cooperation between the UK and the EU
Chair	Vladimír Bilčík , Head of EU Program, Research Center of the SFPA
Kick-off	Andrew Garth , UK Ambassador in Slovakia Tomáš Kozák , Director, CFSP Department, Slovak MFA Alexander Duleba , Director, Research Center of the SFPA Tomáš Strážay , Head of Central and South-Eastern European Programme, RC SFPA
11:10	Coffee Break
11:30	Defence cooperation between the UK and the EU
Chair	Vladimír Bilčík , Head of EU Programme, RC SFPA
Kick-off	Group Captain Michael Longstaff , UK Defence Attaché to the Czech and Slovak Republics Miroslava Čániová , Advisor for CSDP, Slovak Ministry of Defence Juraj Krúpa , Director of Security and Defence Programme, Slovak Security Policy Institute
13:00	Conclusions followed by sandwich lunch